*Remarks

1. Objectives use action verbs of Drexel University (as example shown) without using to study
2. Research Methodology will be quantitative or qualitative which is divided into 2 prominent parts: data collection and data analysis which will be different as research methodology
3. Research Results have to be reported according to respective objectives
4. Pattern of writing Abstract in Thai and in English should be the same as provided by RMUTR. Importantly, English grammatical correctness is considered.
